District One Hospital proudly supports South Central College students and their commitment to becoming the next generation of healthcare providers.