

South Central
COLLEGE

Dr. Jennifer Fager

Vice President of Academic and Student Affairs

Effective 6/28/21

Dr. Jennifer Fager has over 20 years of experience working with and supporting faculty, students, and staff colleagues.

She currently serves as Interim Dean of Occupational Programs at Kirtland Community College in Grayling, Michigan. Prior to her appointment at Kirtland, Dr. Fager served as Vice President of Academic Affairs at Mid Michigan College.

She has served higher education in a variety of roles including the Director of University Assessment and Associate Professor of Educational Studies at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire; Director of the School of Education and Associate Dean of the College of Social Sciences, Health, and Education at Xavier University; Department Chair at Saginaw Valley State University; Director of Academic Assessment at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas; Director of Curriculum, Assessment, and Specialized Accreditation at Central Michigan University; and as a faculty member and teacher where she worked with students to meet their academic and personal goals.

Dr. Fager has participated in and collaborated with academic and student affairs colleagues on numerous shared-governance committees to address the needs of students and the various institutions she has served. She also served as a Peer Reviewer and Assessment Mentor for the Higher Learning Commission and as a peer reviewer for NCATE/CAEP and was an elected member of the Eau Claire Area School District School Board.

Dr. Fager is a proud Cornhusker and earned her undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral degrees from the University of Nebraska.

