Global Connections Conference
October 14-15, 2021
CALL FOR PROPOSALS

What is the Global Connections Conference?
The Global Connections Conference is a biannual conference held over two days on the North Mankato campus of South Central College. A specific culture is featured at each conference, and this is reflected in the speakers, food, and performances.

When and where will the Global Connections Conference be held?
October 14-15, 2021. It will combine a face-to-face day with a virtual half day:
1. October 14, 2021 (face-to-face on the South Central College, North Mankato campus), 8:00 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.
2. October 15, 2021 (virtual held via Zoom), 8:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

How do I submit a proposal?
Use the link below. You’ll need the following information to complete the form:
• Name, Title, School/Organization for all presenters
• Session Format Preference (face-to-face or virtual)
• Session Title
• Session Description (Up to 200-word description of the proposed session)
• Session Objectives (1-4 things that participants will learn at your session)

Submit your proposal here. Proposals are due Friday, May 7, 2021

For any questions, including ideas about sessions or the link to this call for proposals, contact the Global Conference Coordinator, Dr. Amy Magnus: Amy.magnus@southcentral.edu / 507-389-7407
